

SUNDERLAND'S SENSATIONAL VICTORY.

Five First League Teams Beaten at Home—Everton's Lead.

'SPURS WIN AT FULHAM.

Australians Outplay Anglo-Welsh Side—Cardiff Rout Blackheath.

There were many unexpected happenings in Saturday's football, more than usual, perhaps. No fewer than five First League clubs were beaten at home.

The Sunderland team, on paper, is, of course, the strongest in the country, but the results on the whole have not been in keeping with the reputations of the players.

Everton, the leaders, had a hard fight with Manchester United before they beat them by 3 goals to 2 at Goodison Park.

ASHROFT V. ARSENAL.

Woolwich Arsenal, after their fine form at Chelsea on the previous Saturday, expected to beat Blackburn Rovers at Plumstead.

Manchester United showed improved form in beating Aston Villa at Preston by 3 goals to 2.

There were only seven matches in the Second League, owing to the Cup-ties, and of these only one was won by a visiting team.

SPLENDID PLAY BY MORRIS.

The 'Spurs showed much of the form they have displayed in recent matches, and Fulham, although playing by a goal at half-time, never looked like being the winning side.

The Wolves outplayed Clapton Orient at Wolverhampton, and won by 2 goals to 1.

The Wolves outplayed Clapton Orient at Wolverhampton, and won by 2 goals to 1.

SOUTHERN LEAGUE NOTES.

Only half a dozen matches in the Southern League competition were decided on Saturday, owing to so many clubs being engaged in the last qualifying round of the English Cup.

Reading gave Southampton a rare fright at the Dell, and a few minutes from the finish looked certain winners.

There were plenty of thrills in the game between Portsmouth and Northampton at Portsmouth, and all things considered, the home side were a trifle unlucky to lose by 4 goals to 3.

As much of the play as the winners, and but for one or two bad misses the result would have been reversed.

AMATEUR "SOCCER" GAMES.

By beating the Old Westminsters by 6 to 1 at Queen's Club on Saturday, Cambridge University wound up the first half of their season in a manner worthy of the best Light Blue side since S. S. Harris's last year.

Harris was playing for the Blues, and shot their goal, but he was well supported, Dick Baker's absence from the centre being greatly felt.

As was predicted, the Old Wykehamists put the Old Citizens out of the Arthur Dunn Cup by 2 to 1.

Clapton's 4-2 win over Dulwich Hamlet, at Champion Hill, in the Isthmian League was another capital performance.

HOW CARDIFF BEAT BLACKHEATH.

Although Cardiff played six reserve forwards they proved too clever a side for Blackheath and won comfortably by 3 converted goals and a try.

Cardiff continued attacking through their backs, but both Cooper and Tawse tackled splendidly, and Gibbs on two occasions was thrown into touch within a yard or two of the line.

The Blackheath team are but a shadow of what they were some years back, and but for the efforts of Cooper and Tawse the score would have been doubled.

ON THEIR METTLE.

Australians Score 24 Points to 0 Against the Anglo-Welsh.

The Australians went all out to beat the Anglo-Welsh side at Richmond on Saturday, and they did it properly.

At full strength, they might have made something like a fight of it; as it was, the Australians, who played dead keen, but very fair, just jumped home.

Woods showed what he can do. He has been ill, and is still a bit over weight; but he buckmoxed the opposition absolutely on three separate occasions in the real Dobbin fashion.

A rather amusing discussion took place after the match as to who was the best forward on the field.

GOOD SPORT AT KEMPTON.

Jerry M. Gives a Great Display in the Richmond Chase.

Apart from the successful debut of the champion jockey, D. Maher, in a hurdle race (which I have described on page 5), the sport at Kempton Park turned out extremely interesting, and Saturday half-holiday folk had a very good time.

It was alone worth a visit to see that good horse Jerry M. go round the three miles in the Richmond Steeplechase. This faultless jumper seemed to gain lengths at every fence.

Indeed, this owner, who scored years ago in all the great races, seems bound to win another Grand National Steeplechase with such horses in his stable as Jerry M., Cackler, and Holy War.

Robert Gore, their trainer, himself an amateur rider of mark among club men, is one of the most experienced of professionals for this game.
